Dear Pi Phi Sister,

Pi Beta Phi’s philanthropic mission ignites a lifelong love of reading—opening doors, expanding worlds, and strengthening the magic that transforms individuals and strengthens communities. You are invited to experience that mystique firsthand at Houston Pi Beta Phi Foundation’s Magic & Martinis—an unforgettable evening celebrating literacy, sisterhood, and wonder.

The night begins with an elegant cocktail hour featuring signature martinis crafted exclusively for the event, alongside intimate sleight-of-hand magic as Houston’s premier magician, Ben Jackson, amazes guests up close. Guests will then enjoy a chef-curated dinner, followed by a full-stage performance by the internationally award-winning magician himself. Prepare for delightful surprises, moments of astonishment, and an experience so captivating it leaves you wondering...how did he do that?

Literacy remains a top priority of the Houston Pi Beta Phi Foundation. We are committed to making a heart-felt difference in the lives of children through the power of reading. Your participation will help continue our literacy efforts for the following local charities:

- Bo’s Place
- Children’s Memorial Hermann Hospital
- Children’s Museum Houston
- DePelchin’s Children’s Center
- iWRITE
- Literacy Now
- Nehemiah Center
- Neuhaus Education Center
- Small Steps Nurturing Center
- Texas Children’s Hospital Medical Center
- Texas Children’s Hospital West Campus
- UT MD Anderson Children’s Cancer Hospital
- Yellowstone Schools

On this magical evening, we are deeply honored to celebrate Donna Coffman Dawson, Oklahoma Beta 1953, for her lifetime of dedication to Pi Beta Phi.

With your generous support, we can continue to encourage Houston children to learn and grow through the MAGIC of literacy.

Pi Phi Love,

Lauren Creager Page
